

Fortune Media and Great Place To Work Name Jamf to 2023 Best Workplaces for Women List, Ranking #98

October 24, 2023

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 24, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Jamf (NASDAQ: JAMF), the standard in managing and securing Apple at work, announced that it has been recognized as one of the 2023 Best Workplaces for Women™ by Fortune and Great Place to Work®, ranking in 98 place. Earning a spot means that Jamf is one of the best technology companies to work for in the country and the only Minnesota-based company to make the list. This is Jamf's second time being named to this prestigious list.

"At Jamf, we are committed to cultivating an inclusive and supportive work environment that enables all of our employees to thrive," said Michelle Bucaria, chief people officer at Jamf. "We are proud to offer a flexible work environment, encourage a 'lead with trust' philosophy from the top down and support our employee resource groups, including Women@Jamf, in impacting workplace culture. It is due to the dedication and talents of Jamfs from diverse backgrounds that we continue to be recognized as a top workplace year after year. We are proud of this achievement and grateful to every employee who contributes to making Jamf such an outstanding place to work."

To determine the Best Workplaces for Women, Great Place To Work analyzed the survey responses of over 600,000 women who work for Great Place To Work Certified™ companies that were eligible for the list. To be considered, a company must employ at least 50 women, and have at least 20% of non-executive managers who are women and at least one executive who's a woman.

Jamf supports work-life balance and flexibility

Jamf recognizes that flexibility and work-life balance are top priorities for many employees. Jamf is dedicated to creating an open culture based on respect and trust. This is driven by Jamf's intentional "office-as-a-service" philosophy, which allows employees to work where they want and use their office space as a service provided to them. With Jamf's choice-based office model, employees have the flexibility to live a well-balanced life with the autonomy to be their best selves and do their best work.

Jamf fosters inclusion and belonging through community

Jamf celebrates diversity and creates a sense of belonging through its Employee Resource Groups (ERGs). Women@Jamf, Shades of Jamf, Proud@Jamf, Families@Jamf, LatinX@Jamf and Accessibility@Jamf offer women and allies spaces for open dialogue, professional development, and advancing Jamf's inclusive culture. ERG-hosted events like external expert speakers, holiday celebrations, and panel discussions on relevant topics help Jamfs learn and engage with each other on relevant topics.

Jamf champions women in tech from the top down

Women remain underrepresented in tech leadership, occupying just 25% of jobs and under 20% of leadership roles industry-wide. Jamf aims to buck this trend through providing advancement opportunities and nurturing gender diversity. In 2023, women accounted for nearly 40% of the management positions at Jamf, exceeding the rates typically seen in the technology industry. Furthermore, our worldwide women's retention rate matches our overall voluntary retention rate of 90%.

Earlier this year, Jamf was listed at a U.S. News Best Technology Companies to Work For by US News. In 2022, Jamf also ranked as a Fortune 100 Great Place to Work®, and in 2021 as a Best Workplaces for Women™, Best Workplaces in Technology™, Best Workplaces for Millennials™, Best Workplaces for Parents™ and PEOPLE Companies That Care®.
